Explore The Path Less Traveled

Theodore Roosevelt

Wind Cave

Capitol Reef Black Canyon of the Gunnison

fied Fores

Great Sand Dunes

Carsbad Caverns

dalune Mountain

National Parks have become very popular. Around 331 million people visited national parks in 2017. But, is it always best to follow the crowds?

North Cascades

unt Rainier

Crater Lake

assen Volcanio

Channel Islands

More than 1,000,000- 1,000,000- Less than 4,000,000 4,000,000 200,000 200,000

Annual Park Visitors (2017)

Glacier is one of the most popular national parks, yet most people congregate around roads and day hikes.

[®]This is an example of the sureal views that can be found when taking the path less traveled

Gates of the Artic National Park is the least visited park in America at only 11,177 people in 2017. Even still there is scenery unlike anywhere else.

Gates of the Arctic

Denali

Kobuk Valleu

ai'i Volcanoes

aleakala

Isle Royale National Park is the least visited park in the lower 48 states, with only 28,196 people in 2017, and is one of the most unique and secluded natural areas in America

uahona Vallei

Great Smoku Mountains

Everolades

Dry Tortugas

Congaree

Just because a destination is popular doesn't mean it's the best. Consider the wide array of National Park options when planning your next excursion!

> Steven Domiter USA projection- Contiguous equidistant conic Alaska Projection- NAD 1983 Alaska Albers Glacier- GCS North American 1983 Visitor data and trail data from the National Park service Trail traffic data and Glacier photo found on AllTrails.com Arctic photo found from NPS and Isle Royale photo from NPCA